The Centre for Genocide and Human Rights Studies, Faculty of Law at the National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy (Ukraine) and the School of Law and Criminology, Maynooth University (Ireland) are pleased to announce an upcoming online symposium on 'Human Rights in times of War and Conflict: Comparative and Interdisciplinary perspectives from Ukraine and Ireland.'

We are seeking offers of short contributions (15 minutes) on this important theme, contributing to an informal discussion on a nonetheless vitally pressing issue. The purposes of this are to share experiences and perspectives, to explore research connections, and begin to build research networks in the field of human rights across our two universities.

The symposium is multi-disciplinary, and welcomes scholars and researchers from all fields including, for example, law, criminology, politics, sociology, history, (amongst others).

Call for short papers

We invite colleagues to deliver short papers on the theme of this symposium. To express an interest, please send an abstract of no more than 300 words outlining the theme of your paper to fergus.ryan@mu.ie and to antonovych@ukma.edu.ua by 5 p.m. Irish Time/7 p.m. Kyiv time on Monday 15 May 2023.
